Whitehall Choir

Now in its 66th season, the Whitehall Choir has become a regular fixture on the London concert scene. The repertoire includes music from the 15th to the 21st century, which the choir performs in central London venues and occasionally abroad.

In 2007, the Whitehall Choir recorded a CD, featuring the first recorded performance of Paul Spicer's The Deciduous Cross and Bruckner's Mass in E Minor. The CD is on sale through our website www.whitehallchoir.org.uk. If you would like to be kept informed of this and other Whitehall Choir initiatives and events, please sign up for our "e-alerts" via the website.

Paul Spicer – Musical Director and Conductor

Paul Spicer is well known as a recording artist and producer, composer, author, academic and, above all, choral conductor. He is widely acknowledged as one of the UK's leading exponents of British music. In addition to the Whitehall Choir, he also conducts the Finzi Singers, the Birmingham Bach Choir and the Chamber Choirs of the Birmingham Conservatoire, where he is Head of Choral Conducting.

Singing with Whitehall Choir

Enthusiastic prospective members are always welcome, subject to places being available. Admission to the choir is by a short audition. For details and to contact us, please visit the choir website: www.whitehallchoir.org.uk, or call Richard Grafen on 020-7215 5323 (daytime only).
