THE WHITEHALL CHOIR is now in its 69th season. Its high standards are reflected not just in the wonderful sound it creates in several concerts a year but also in the number of new singers wishing to join. Members share a strong commitment to the Choir. In addition to weekly rehearsals (Tuesday evenings in the Victoria area during the academic year) there are occasional tours abroad, singing workshops and Come & Sing events. The Choir is a friendly group, which it prizes as highly as singing sensitively and accurately. New members in all voice parts are welcome. Admission is by a short audition usually after about two or three rehearsals. For further details visit www.whitehallchoir.org.uk or email joinus@whitehallchoir.org.uk. PAUL SPICER began his musical training as a chorister at New College, Oxford. He studied with Herbert Howells and Richard Poplewell (organ) at the Royal College of Music in London, winning the Walford Davies Organ Prize in his final year. This is Paul's 12th season with the Whitehall Choir; he also conducts the Birmingham Bach Choir and the chamber choirs of the Birmingham Conservatoire where, in addition to Oxford University, he teaches choral conducting. He founded the Finzi Singers in 1984 with whom he made 15 CDs for Chandos. Paul is in great demand, too, as a recording producer and as a composer. He recently finished a major biography and study of works of Sir George Dyson and has just begun a commission for a choral symphony commemorating the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War. You can watch Paul Spicer talking about this concert at www.whitehallchoir.org.uk.
