Bach – St John Passion

Evangelist: Thomas Hobbs, Christus: Oliver Hunt,
Pilate: Philip Tebb, Soprano: Elizabeth Weisberg,
Alto: Carris Jones, Tenor: Sam Jenkins

Whitehall Choir returns to St John's Smith Square for a performance of Bach St John Passion in the run up to Easter. They are joined by period ensemble, London Baroque Sinfonia, and top soloists including Thomas Hobbs as the Evangelist.

First performed on Good Friday in 1724 in Leipzig's Nikolaikirche, the St John Passion is one of the greatest masterworks of sacred choral music. From the complex and dramatic to the most sublime and heartrending moments, this is an evening not to be missed.

Whitehall Choir, under its dynamic Music Director Joanna Tomlinson, is one of London's leading amateur choirs. The choir is always looking for talented singers. Details at whitehallchoir.org.
